EXPERIENCE

Barista April 2012-Current
Blue Bottle Coffee, New York City, NY
Trained in specialty coffee. I have become an expert in dialing in espresso and pour over, origins and type of coffees and presentation, including latte art.

Freelance Photographer January 2011-Current
As a freelance photographer I have worked on projects and assignments that have ranged from event coverage, weddings, photobooth operator, portraits and lifestyle images. My clients have included Khaki Bedford Photography, Seattle University and private individuals.

Freelance Graphic Designer June 2013-Current
As a freelancer, I have worked for various start-ups, businesses and organizations developing graphics, illustrations and branding. My clients have included Kaiser Permanente, History of the Heart, and Ravishing Radish Catering.

Office Assistant June 2013-September 2013
Ravishing Radish Catering, Seattle, WA
Beginning as an office assistant maintaining sales reports, running errands, making mailing lists, I was quickly given more responsibilities, such as branding a new look for promotional materials at the catering company, purchasing and arranging flowers for events, and producing imagery.

Photographer Nancy LeVine
Seattle, WA & New York City, NY
Advised and created a web presense for LeVine for both her photography project "Senior Dogs Across America" and for her jewelry business Luscious Lobes launching this year. As well as assisting her on assignment both in New York and Seattle.

Intern for Photographer Norman Jean Roy March 2012-July 2012
Norman Jean Roy Studios, New York City, NY
Worked on all elements of the photographic process from pre to post production. I assisted in archiving, scanning negatives, setting up the studio for shoots as well as general studio management, errands, and research.

The Seattle University Spectator,
Began as a staff photographer and was quickly promoted to Photo Editor the following year where I was in charge of a team of five photographers, assigning, editing their, as well as my own work, for the weekly newspaper.
